

1844. THOMAS G. PRATT, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

CHAP. 256. pose of being appropriated to the erection of a court house in Frederick county, together with the interest which may have been received or may be due thereon, be applied by the levy court of said county, to the immediate repair and improvement of the court house in said county, if in their opinion the public interest will be thereby promoted.

In force after its passage.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from the passage thereof.

CHAPTER 255.

Passed March 7, 1845.

An act relating to Lotteries.

Lottery tickets to have signatures of the commissioners

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, all lottery tickets or parts of lottery tickets in the consolidated lotteries of this State, or in any other lotteries, that may be hereafter authorised in this State, shall be authenticated by the signatures of one at least, of the commissioners of lotteries, either written or stamped.

Repealed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all acts inconsistent herewith be, and the same are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 256.

Passed March 7, 1845

An act for the benefit of Daniel Badley, of Somerset County.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, that Daniel Badley, of Somerset county, is desirous to introduce into this State from the State of Delaware, a negro woman, Adeline, a slave for life—Therefore,

Proviso.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That said Badley is hereby authorised and empowered to introduce into this State, from the State of Delaware, said negro slave Adeline; provided, he shall comply with the provisions of the act of eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, chapter fifteen.